LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

(Isaiah 53:1-5, 7-10) (Seated)

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

Who would believe what we have heard? To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? The servant grew up like a sapling before him, like a shoot from the parched earth; there was in him no stately bearing to make us look at him, nor appearance that would attract us to him. He was spurned and avoided by people, a man of suffering, accustomed to infirmity, one of those from whom people hide their faces, spurned, and we held him in no esteem. Yet it was our infirmities that the servant bore, our sufferings that he endured, while we thought of him as stricken, as one smitten by God and afflicted. But he was pierced for our offenses, crushed for our sins, upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole, by his stripes we were healed. Though he was harshly treated, he submitted and opened not his mouth; like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, he was silent and opened not his mouth. Oppressed and condemned, he was taken away, and who would have thought any more of his destiny? When he was cut off from the land of the living, and smitten for the sin of his people, a grave was assigned him among the wicked and a burial place with evildoers, though he had done no wrong nor spoken any falsehood. But the LORD was pleased to crush his servant in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

L — Word of the Lord.

C — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8 and 10)

R — My soul, bless the Lord, who heals all your ills.

1. Bless the LORD, my soul; all my being, bless his holy name! Bless the LORD, my soul; do not forget all the gifts of God. (R)

2. Who pardons all your sins, heals all your ills, delivers your life from the pit, surrounds you with love and compassion. (R)

3. The LORD does righteous deeds, brings justice to all the oppressed. God's ways were revealed to Moses, mighty deeds to the people of Israel. (R)

4. Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger, abounding in kindness. God has not dealt with us as our sins merit, nor requited us as our deeds deserve. (R)

Acclamation (Lk 1:45) (Stand)

(Said when the Acclamation is not sung)

Alleluia, alleluia. Blessed are you, O Virgin Mary, for firmly believing that the promises of the Lord would be fulfilled. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

(John 14:15-21, 25-27)

P — The Lord be with you.

C — And with your spirit.

P — A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

C — Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows it. But you know the Spirit, because it remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Those who have my commandments and observe them are the ones who love me. And those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the holy Spirit—whom the Father will send in my name—will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give peace to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

P — The Gospel of the Lord.

C — Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

For by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit she conceived your Only Begotten Son, and without losing the glory of virginity, brought forth into the world the eternal Light, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him the Angels praise your majesty, Dominions adore and Powers tremble before you. Heaven and the Virtues of heaven and the blessed Seraphim worship together with exultation. May our voices, we pray, join with theirs in humble praise, as we acclaim:

Prayer after Communion (Stand)

Grant to your Church, O Lord, that, strengthened by the power of this Sacrament, she may eagerly walk in the pathways of the Gospel, until she reaches the blessed vision of peace, which the Virgin Mary, your lowly handmaid, already enjoys eternally in glory. Through Christ our Lord.

B — Amen.

Prayer to the Virgin of Peñafrancia

All — Turn to me thine eyes, Oh most loving Virgin of Peñafrancia and have mercy on my soul that come to thee, full of repentance.

Protect my family, relatives, friends and benefactors. Intercede for your devotees, both the living and the dead, especially for those whom I am most obliged to help.

Pray for me, console me, save me. In my hours of peril, adversity and afflictions, above all, in the hour of my death, appear before your Divine Son to help and defend me. Tell Him that I am your devotee, that having complete trust in your protection I kneel before your miraculous image to ask for your powerful intercession.
