PROPER OF THE DAYS OF THE NOVENARY AND FEAST OF THE
DIVINO ROSTRO

Friday of the First day of the Novenary to Our Lady of Peñafrancia
DIVINO ROSTRO
(HOLY FACE)

Feast

In this Mass, the color red is used.

On the Fifth day of the Novenary occurs the Sunday of the Ordinary Time, the Proper of the Day is celebrated. As customary to some other place where the Proper for the Novenary is celebrated on other dates, wherefore pastoral reasons the proper on Fifth Day of Novenary is to be used.

Entrance Antiphon

Phil 2: 8-9

Our Lord Jesus Christ humbled himself unto death, even to the death of the cross:
for which cause God also has exalted him,
and has given him a name which is above all names.

The Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) is said.

Collect

B Lord Jesus Christ,
whose most hold Face, hidden away in thy Passion, shines forth as the sun in its power:
mercifully grant that, sharing your sufferings on earth,
we may avail to rejoice, at the unveiling of your glory in heaven.
Who lives and reigns with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

The Creed is said.

Prayer over the Offerings

Behold, O God our protector, and look on the Face of your Christ,
who offered himself to you as a victim for us:
and grant that we, offering the same spotless victim, may ourselves also come to be as a burnt offering welcome to you.
Through Christ our Lord.

Preface:

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is right and just.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For you placed the salvation of the human race
on the wood of the Cross,
so that, where death arose, life might again spring forth and the evil one, who conquered on a tree, might likewise on a tree be conquered,
through Christ our Lord.

Through him the Angels praise your majesty,
Dominions adore and Powers tremble before you.
Heaven and the Virtues of heaven and the blessed Seraphim worship together with exultation.
May our voices, we pray, join with theirs
in humble praise, as we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts . . .

Communion Antiphon

Ps 21: 71-18

They have pierced my hands and my feet:
they have numbered all my bones.

Prayer after Communion

Graciously make your Face to shine upon us,
we beseech you, O Lord:
that being taught your righteousness,
we may by these most holy mysteries be able to outwit the world
when it beguiles us, and overcome when it assails us.
You who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

PRAYER TO DIVINO ROSTRO

The people will kneel while the Prayer is said.

Jesus, in your bitter Passion you became a man of sorrow.

In your disfigured Face I see your infinite love.

I am consumed with the desire to love you and make you love by all men.

I venerate your Holy Face

because it is the human expression of the Face of the Father.

The tears in your eyes are like pearls

which I desire to offer to God in expiation of my sins and the spiritual salvation of sinners.

O Jesus, your adorable Face ravishes my heart.

Gaze into my eyes and touch my heart and set me on fire with your love so that my only desire will be to contemplate your Glorious Face in heaven. Amen.

THE ORDER OF THE MASS

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

1. When the people are gathered, the Priest approaches the altar with the ministers while the Entrance Chant is sung.

When he has arrived at the altar, after making a profound bow with the ministers, the Priest venerates the altar with a kiss and, if appropriate, incenses the cross and the altar. Then, with the ministers, he goes to the chair.

When the Entrance Chant is concluded, the Priest and the faithful, standing, sign themselves with the Sign of the Cross, while the Priest, facing the people, says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The people reply:

Amen.

1. Then the Priest, extending his hands, greets the people, saying:

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Or:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Or:

The Lord be with you.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

In this first greeting a Bishop, instead of The Lord be with you, says:

Peace be with you.

2. The Priest, or a Deacon, or another minister, may very briefly introduce the faithful to the Mass of the day.

PENITENTIAL ACT*

3. Then follows the Penitential Act, to which the Priest invites the faithful, saying:
Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins,
and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

A brief pause for silence follows. Then all recite together the formula of general confession:

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

Then they continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The absolution by the Priest follows:

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

The people reply:

Amen.

* From time to time on Sundays, especially in Easter Time, instead of the customary Penitential Act, the blessing and sprinkling of water may take place (as in Appendix II of the Roman Missal, pp. 1453-1456) as a reminder of Baptism.

Or:

4. The Priest invites the faithful to make the Penitential Act:
Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins,
and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

A brief pause for silence follows.

The Priest then says:

Have mercy on us, O Lord.

The people reply:

For we have sinned against you.

The Priest:

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

The people:

And grant us your salvation.

The absolution by the Priest follows:

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

The people reply:

Amen.

Or:

5. The Priest invites the faithful to make the Penitential Act:
Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins,
and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

A brief pause for silence follows.

The Priest, or a Deacon or another minister, then says the following or other invocations with Kyrie, eleison (Lord, have mercy):

You were sent to heal the contrite of heart:

Lord, have mercy. Or: Kyrie, eleison.

The people reply:

Lord, have mercy. Or: Kyrie, eleison.

The Priest:

You came to call sinners:

Christ, have mercy. Or: Christe, eleison.

The people:

Christ, have mercy. Or: Christe, eleison.

The Priest:

You are seated at the right hand of the Father to intercede for us:

Lord, have mercy. Or: Kyrie, eleison.

The people reply:

Lord, have mercy. Or: Kyrie, eleison.

The absolution by the Priest follows:

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

The people reply:

Amen.

6. The Kyrie, eleison (Lord, have mercy) invocations follow, unless they have just occurred in a formula of the Penitential Act.

V. Lord, have mercy. R. Lord, have mercy.

V. Christ, have mercy. R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy. R. Lord, have mercy.

Or:

V. Kyrie, eleison. R. Kyrie, eleison.

V. Christe, eleison. R. Christe, eleison.

V. Kyrie, eleison. R. Kyrie, eleison.

8. Then, when it is prescribed, this hymn is either sung or said:

lory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

9. When this hymn is concluded, the Priest, with hands joined, says:

Let us pray.

And all pray in silence with the Priest for a while.

Then the Priest, with hands extended, says the Collect prayer, at the end of which the people acclaim:

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

10. Then the reader goes to the ambo and reads the First Reading, while all sit and listen.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaim:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

11. The psalmist or cantor sings or says the Psalm, with the people making the response.
12. After this, if there is to be a Second Reading, a reader reads it from the ambo, as above.

To indicate the end of the reading, the reader acclaim:

The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

13. There follows the Alleluia or another chant laid down by the rubrics, as the liturgical time requires.

14. Meanwhile, if incense is used, the Priest puts some into the thurible. After this, the Deacon who is to proclaim the Gospel, bowing profoundly before the Priest, asks for the blessing, saying in a low voice:

Your blessing, Father.

The Priest says in a low voice:

May the Lord be in your heart and on your lips,
that you may proclaim his Gospel worthily and well,
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy Spirit.

The Deacon signs himself with the Sign of the Cross and replies:

Amen.

If, however, a Deacon is not present, the Priest, bowing before the altar, says quietly:

Cleanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, that I may worthily proclaim your holy Gospel.

15. The Deacon, or the Priest, then proceeds to the ambo, accompanied, if appropriate, by ministers with incense and candles. there he says:

The Lord be with you.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

The Deacon, or the Priest:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to N.

And, at the same time, he makes the Sign of the Cross on the book and on his forehead, lips, and breast.

The people acclaim:

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then the Deacon, or the Priest, incenses the book, if incense is used, and proclaims the Gospel.

16. At the end of the Gospel, the Deacon, or the Priest, acclaims:

The Gospel of the Lord.

All reply:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he kisses the book, saying quietly:

Through the words of the Gospel may our sins be wiped away.

17. Then follows the Homily, which is to be preached by a Priest or Deacon on all Sundays and Holydays of Obligation; on other days, it is recommended.

18. At the end of the homily, the Symbol or Profession of Faith or Creed, when prescribed, is either sung or said:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

19. Instead of the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, especially during Lent and Easter Time, the baptismal Symbol of the Roman Church, known as the Apostles' Creed, may be used.

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

At the words that follow, up to and including the Virgin Mary, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

20. Then follows the Universal Prayer, that is, the Prayer of the Faithful or Bidding Prayers.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

21. When all this has been done, the Offertory Chant begins. Meanwhile, the ministers place the corporal, the purificator, the chalice, the pall, and the Missal on the altar.
22. It is desirable that the faithful express their participation by making an offering, bringing forward bread and wine for the celebration of the Eucharist and perhaps other gifts to relieve the needs of the Church and of the poor.
23. The Priest, standing at the altar, takes the paten with the bread and holds it slightly raised above the altar with both hands, saying in a low voice:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

Then he places the paten with the bread on the corporal.

If, however, the Offertory Chant is not sung, the Priest may speak these words aloud; at the end, the people may acclaim:

Blessed be God for ever.

24. The Deacon, or the Priest, pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

25. The Priest then takes the chalice and holds it slightly raised above the altar with both hands, saying in a low voice:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the wine we offer you:
fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

Then he places the chalice on the corporal.

If, however, the Offertory Chant is not sung, the Priest may speak these words aloud; at the end, the people may acclaim:

Blessed be God for ever.

26. After this, the Priest, bowing profoundly, says quietly:
With humble spirit and contrite heart
may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.
27. If appropriate, he also incenses the offerings, the cross, and the altar. A Deacon or other minister then incenses the Priest and the people.
28. Then the Priest, standing at the side of the altar, washes his hands, saying quietly:
Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
29. Standing at the middle of the altar, facing the people, extending and then joining his hands, he says:
Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours
may be acceptable to God,
the almighty Father.
- The people rise and reply:*
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.
30. Then the Priest, with hands extended, says the Prayer over the Offerings, at the end of which the people acclaim:
Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

31. Then the Priest begins the Eucharistic Prayer.

Extending his hands, he says:

The Lord be with you.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

The Priest, raising his hands, continues:

Lift up your hearts.

The people:

We lift them up to the Lord.

The Priest, with hands extended, adds:

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

The people:

It is right and just.

The Priest, with hands extended, continues the Preface.

At the end of the Preface he joins his hands and concludes the preface with the people, singing or saying aloud:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

32. In all Masses, the Priest celebrant is permitted to sing parts of the Eucharistic Prayer provided with musical notation below, pp. 693ff., especially the principal parts.

In Eucharistic Prayer I, the Roman Canon, the words included in brackets may be omitted.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYERS

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER I (THE ROMAN CANON)

83. V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is truly right and just.

Then follows the Preface to be used in accord with the rubrics, which concludes:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

84. The Priest, with hands extended, says:

Go you, therefore, most merciful Father,
we make humble prayer and petition through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord:

He Joins His Hands And Says:

that you accept

He makes the Sign of the Cross once over the bread and chalice together, saying:

and bless ✠ these gifts, these offerings,
these holy and unblemished sacrifices,

With hands extended, he continues:

which we offer you firstly for your holy catholic Church.
Be pleased to grant her peace, to guard, unite and govern her throughout the whole world, together with your servant N. our Pope and N. our Bishop,*
and all those who, holding to the truth,
hand on the catholic and apostolic faith.

* Mention may be made here of the Coadjutor Bishop, or Auxiliary Bishops, as noted in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 149.

85. Commemoration of the Living.

Remember, Lord, your servants N. And N.

The Priest joins his hands and prays briefly for those for whom he intends to pray.

Then, with hands extended, he continues:

and all gathered here,
whose faith and devotion are known to you.
For them, we offer you this sacrifice of praise or they offer it for themselves and all who are dear to them:
for the redemption of their souls,
in hope of health and well-being,
and paying their homage to you,
the eternal God, living and true.

86. Within the action.

In communion with those whose memory we venerate, especially the glorious ever-Virgin Mary,
Mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ,
† and blessed Joseph, her Spouse,
your blessed Apostles and Martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, (James, John,
Thomas, James, Philip,
Bartholomew, Matthew,
Simon and Jude;
Linus, Cletus, Clement, Sixtus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Lawrence, Chrysogonus,
John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian)
and all your Saints;
we ask that through their merits and prayers,
in all things we may be defended
by your protecting help.
(Through Christ our Lord. Amen.)

87. With hands extended, the Priest continues:

Therefore, Lord, we pray:
graciously accept this oblation of our service,
that of your whole family;
order our days in your peace,
and command that we be delivered from eternal damnation and counted among the flock of those you have chosen.

He joins his hands.

(Through Christ our Lord. Amen.)

88. Holding his hands extended over the offerings, he says:

Be pleased, O God, we pray, to bless, acknowledge,
and approve this offering in every respect;
make it spiritual and acceptable,
so that it may become for us
the Body and Blood of your most beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

He joins his hands.

89. In the formulas that follow, the words of the Lord should be pronounced clearly and distinctly, as the nature of these words requires.

On the day before he was to suffer,

He takes the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took bread in his holy and venerable hands,

He raises his eyes.

and with eyes raised to heaven
to you, O God, his almighty Father, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, broke the bread
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it again on the paten, and genuflects in adoration.

90. After this, the Priest continues:

In a similar way, when supper was ended,

He takes the chalice and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took this precious chalice
in his holy and venerable hands, and once more giving you thanks, he said the blessing and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT,
WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY
FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.
DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the corporal, and genuflects in adoration.

91. Then he says:

The mystery of faith.

And the people continue, acclaiming:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.

Or:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Or:

Save us, Savior of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

92. Then the Priest, with hands extended, says:

Therefore, O Lord,
as we celebrate the memorial of the blessed Passion,
the Resurrection from the dead, and the glorious Ascension into heaven
of Christ, your Son, our Lord, we, your servants and your holy people, offer to your glorious majesty from the gifts that you have given us, this pure victim,
this holy victim,
this spotless victim,
the holy Bread of eternal life and the Chalice of everlasting salvation.

93. Be pleased to look upon these offerings with a serene and kindly countenance, and to accept them,
as once you were pleased to accept the gifts of your servant Abel the just,
the sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith,
and the offering of your high priest Melchizedek,
a holy sacrifice, a spotless victim.

94. Bowing, with hands joined, he continues:

In humble prayer we ask you, almighty God:
command that these gifts be borne by the hands of your holy Angel to your altar on high in the sight of your divine majesty, so that all of us, who through this participation at the altar receive the most holy Body and Blood of your Son,

He stands upright again and signs himself with the Sign of the Cross, saying:
may be filled with every grace and heavenly blessing.

He joins his hands.

(Through Christ our Lord. Amen.)

95. Commemoration of the Dead

With hands extended, the Priest says:

Remember also, Lord, your servants N. and N., who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace.

He joins his hands and prays briefly for those who have died and for whom he intends to pray.

Then, with hands extended, he continues:

Grant them, O Lord, we pray,
and all who sleep in Christ,
a place of refreshment, light and peace.

He joins his hands.

(Through Christ our Lord. Amen.)

96. He strikes his breast with his right hand, saying:

To us, also, your servants, who, though sinners,

And, with hands extended, he continues:

hope in your abundant mercies, graciously grant some share and fellowship with your holy Apostles and Martyrs:
with John the Baptist, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, (Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter,
Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia)
and all your Saints;
admit us, we beseech you,
into their company,
not weighing our merits,
but granting us your pardon,

He joins his hands.

through Christ our Lord.

97. And he continues:

Through whom you continue to make all these good things, O Lord;
you sanctify them, fill them with life,
bless them, and bestow them upon us.

98. He takes the chalice and the paten with the host and, raising both, he says:

Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
for ever and ever.

The people acclaim:

Amen.

Then follows the Communion Rite, p. 38.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER II

99. Although it is provided with its own Preface (text with music in the Roman Missal, p. 721), this Eucharistic Prayer may also be used with other Prefaces, especially those that present an overall view of the mystery of salvation, such as the Common Prefaces.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is truly right and just.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Father most holy,
through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ,
your Word through whom you made all things,
whom you sent as our Savior and Redeemer, incarnate by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin.

Fulfilling your will and gaining for you a holy people,
he stretched out his hands as he endured his Passion, so as to break the bonds of death and manifest the resurrection.

And so, with the Angels and all the Saints
we declare your glory,
as with one voice we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

100. The Priest, with hands extended, says:

You are indeed Holy, O Lord,
the fount of all holiness.

101. He joins his hands and, holding them extended over the offerings, says:

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray,
by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall,

He joins his hands

and makes the Sign of the Cross once over the bread and the chalice together, saying:

so that they may become for us
the Body and ✠ Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He joins his hands.

102. In the formulas that follow, the words of the Lord should be pronounced clearly and distinctly, as the nature of these words requires.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion,

He takes the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it again on the paten, and genuflects in adoration.

103. After this, he continues:

In a similar way, when supper was ended,

He takes the chalice and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took the chalice

and, once more giving thanks,

he gave it to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,

FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,

THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT,

WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY

FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the corporal, and genuflects in adoration.

104. Then he says:

The mystery of faith.

And the people continue, acclaiming:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,

and profess your Resurrection

until you come again.

Or:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,

we proclaim your Death, O Lord,

until you come again.

Or:

Save us, Savior of the world,

for by your Cross and Resurrection

you have set us free.

105. Then the Priest, with hands extended, says:

Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection,
we offer you, Lord,
the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray
that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with N. our Pope and N. our Bishop* and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.

Have mercy on us all, we pray,
that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God,
and blessed Joseph, her Spouse,
with the blessed Apostles,
and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages,
we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life,
and may praise and glorify you

He joins his hands.

Through your Son, Jesus Christ.

* Mention may be made here of the Coadjutor Bishop, or Auxiliary Bishops, as noted in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 149.

106. He takes the chalice and the paten with the host and, raising both, he says:

Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
for ever and ever.

The people acclaim:

Amen.

Then follows the Communion Rite, p. 38.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER III

107. V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is truly right and just.

Then follows the Preface to be used in accord with the rubrics, which concludes:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

108. The Priest, with hands extended, says:

ou are indeed Holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise,
for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ,
by the power and working of the Holy Spirit,
you give life to all things and make them holy,
and you never cease to gather a people to yourself,
so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

109. He joins his hands and, holding them extended over the offerings, says:

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you:
by the same spirit graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration,

He joins his hands

and makes the Sign of the Cross once over the bread and chalice together, saying:

that they may become the Body and ✠ Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ,

He joins his hands.

at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

110. In the formulas that follow, the words of the Lord should be pronounced clearly and distinctly, as the nature of these words requires.

For on the night he was betrayed

He takes the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

He himself took bread,
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing,
broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it again on the paten, and genuflects in adoration.

111. After this, he continues:

In a similar way, when supper was ended,

He takes the chalice and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took the chalice,
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing,
and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT,
WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY
FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.
DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the corporal, and genuflects in adoration.

112. Then he says:

The mystery of faith.

And the people continue, acclaiming:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection

Or:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Or:

Save us, Savior of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

113. Dangan, nakabiklad an mga takyag, an Padi nagsasabi:

Therefore, O Lord, as we celebrate the memorial of the saving Passion of your Son, his wondrous Resurrection and Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming,
we offer you in thanksgiving
this holy and living sacrifice.

Look, we pray, upon the oblation of your Church and, recognizing the sacrificial Victim by whose death
you willed to reconcile us to yourself, grant that we, who are nourished
by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ.

May he make of us
an eternal offering to you,
so that we may obtain an inheritance with your elect, especially with the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with your blessed Apostles and glorious Martyrs (with saint N.: the Saint of the day or Patron Saint) and with all the Saints, on whose constant intercession in your presence we rely for unfailing help.

May this Sacrifice of our reconciliation,
we pray, O Lord,
advance the peace and salvation of all the world.
Be pleased to confirm in faith and charity
your pilgrim Church on earth, with your servant N. our Pope and N. our Bishop,*
the Order of Bishops, all the clergy,
and the entire people you have gained for your own.

Listen graciously to the prayers of this family, whom you have summoned before you:
in your compassion, O merciful Father, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world.

† To our departed brothers and sisters and to all who were pleasing to you at their passing from this life, give kind admittance to your kingdom.
There we hope to enjoy for ever the fullness of your glory

He joins his hands.

through Christ Our Lord,
through whom you bestow on the world all that is good. †

114. He takes the chalice and the paten with the host and, raising both, he says:
Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
for ever and ever.

The people acclaim:

Amen.

Then follows the Communion Rite, p. 38.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER IV

116. It is not permitted to change the Preface of this Eucharistic Prayer because of the structure of the Prayer itself, which presents a summary of the history of salvation (text with music in the Roman Missal, p. 736).

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is truly right and just.

It is truly right to give you thanks, truly just to give you glory, Father most holy,
for you are the one God living and true,
existing before all ages and abiding for all eternity, dwelling in unapproachable light;
yet you, who alone are good, the source of life,
have made all that is,
so that you might fill your creatures with blessings and bring joy to many of them by the glory of your light.

And so, in your presence are countless hosts of Angels, who serve you day and night and, gazing upon the glory of your face, glorify you without ceasing.

With them we, too, confess your name in exultation, giving voice to every creature under heaven,
as we acclaim:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

117. The Priest, with hands extended, says:

We give you praise, Father most holy,
for you are great and you have fashioned all your works in wisdom and in love.
You formed man in your own image and entrusted the whole world to his care,
so that in serving you alone, the Creator,
he might have dominion over all creatures.
and when through disobedience he had lost your friendship,
you did not abandon him to the domain of death.
For you came in mercy to the aid of all,
so that those who seek might find you.
Time and again you offered them covenants and through the prophets taught them to look forward to salvation.
And you so loved the world, Father most holy,
that in the fullness of time
you sent your Only Begotten Son to be our Savior.
Made incarnate by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary,
he shared our human nature
in all things but sin.
To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation,
to prisoners, freedom,
and to the sorrowful of heart, joy.
To accomplish your plan,
he gave himself up to death,
and, rising from the dead,
he destroyed death and restored life.
And that we might live no longer for ourselves
but for him who died and rose again for us,
he sent the Holy Spirit from you, Father,
as the first fruits for those who believe,
so that, bringing to perfection his work in the world,
he might sanctify creation to the full.

118. He joins his hands and, holding them extended over the offerings, says:

Therefore, O Lord, we pray:
may this same Holy Spirit graciously sanctify these offerings,

He joins his hands and makes the Sign of the Cross once over the bread and chalice together, saying:

that they may become
the Body and ✠ Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ

He joins his hands.

for the celebration of this great mystery, which he himself left us
as an eternal covenant.

119. In the formulas that follow, the words of the Lord should be pronounced clearly and distinctly, as the nature of these words requires.

For when the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, Father most holy, having loved his own who were in the world,
he loved them to the end:
and while they were at supper,

He takes the bread and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

he took bread, blessed and broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

He shows the consecrated host to the people, places it again on the paten, and genuflects in adoration.

120. After this, he continues:

In a similar way,

He takes the chalice and, holding it slightly raised above the altar, continues:

taking the chalice filled with the fruit of the vine,
he gave thanks,
and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

He bows slightly.

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT,
WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY
FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.
DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

He shows the chalice to the people, places it on the corporal, and genuflects in adoration.

121. Then he says:

The mystery of faith.

And the people continue, acclaiming:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection
until you come again.

Or:

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Or:

Save us, Savior of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

122. Dangan, nakabiklad an mga takyag, an Padi nagsasabi:

Therefore, O Lord,
as we now celebrate the memorial of our redemption,
we remember Christ's Death and his descent to the realm of the dead, we proclaim his Resurrection and his Ascension to your right hand, and, as we await his coming in glory,
we offer you his Body and Blood,
the sacrifice acceptable to you which brings salvation to the whole world.

Look, O Lord, upon the Sacrifice which you yourself have provided for your Church, and grant in your loving kindness to all who partake of this one Bread and one Chalice that, gathered into one body by the Holy Spirit, they may truly become a living sacrifice in Christ to the praise of your glory.

Therefore, Lord, remember now all for whom we offer this sacrifice:
especially your servant N. our Pope,
N. our Bishop,* and the whole Order of Bishops,
all the clergy,
those who take part in this offering,
those gathered here before you,
your entire people,
and all who seek you with a sincere heart.

Remember also those who have died in the peace of your Christ and all the dead,
whose faith you alone have known.

* Mention may be made here of the Coadjutor Bishop, or Auxiliary Bishops, as noted in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 149.

To all of us, your children,
grant, O merciful Father,
that we may enter into a heavenly inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and with your Apostles and Saints in your kingdom.
There, with the whole of creation,
freed from the corruption of sin and death,
may we glorify you through Christ our Lord,

He joins his hands.

through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.

123. He takes the chalice and the paten with the host and, raising both, he says:

Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
for ever and ever.

The people acclaim:

Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

124. After the chalice and paten have been set down, the Priest, with hands joined, says:

At the Savior's command and formed by divine teaching,
we dare to say:

He extends his hands and, together with the people, continues:

Gur Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

125. With hands extended, the Priest alone continues, saying:

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin
and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

He joins his hands.

The people conclude the prayer, acclaiming:

For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

126. Then the Priest, with hands extended, says aloud:

Lord Jesus Christ,
who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.

He joins his hands.

Who live and reign for ever and ever.

The people reply:

Amen.

127. The Priest, turned towards the people, extending and then joining his hands, adds:

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

128. Then, if appropriate, the Deacon, or the Priest, adds:

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

And all offer one another a sign, in keeping with local customs, that expresses peace, communion, and charity. The Priest gives the sign of peace to a Deacon or minister.

129. Then he takes the host, breaks it over the paten, and places a small piece in the chalice, saying quietly:

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ
bring eternal life to us who receive it.

130. Meanwhile the following is sung or said:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

The invocation may even be repeated several times if the fraction is prolonged. Only the final time, however, is grant us peace said.

131. Then the Priest, with hands joined, says quietly:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world,
free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood,
from all my sins and from every evil;
keep me always faithful to your commandments,
and never let me be parted from you.

Or:

May the receiving of your Body and Blood,
Lord Jesus Christ,
not bring me to judgment and condemnation,
but through your loving mercy be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy.

132. The Priest genuflects, takes the host and, holding it slightly raised above the paten or above the chalice, while facing the people, says aloud:

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

And together with the people he adds once:

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

133. The Priest, facing the altar, says quietly:

May the Body of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

And he reverently consumes the Body of Christ.

Then he takes the chalice and says quietly:

May the Blood of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

And he reverently consumes the Blood of Christ.

134. After this, he takes the paten or ciborium and approaches the communicants. The Priest raises a host slightly and shows it to each of the communicants, saying:

The Body of Christ.

The communicant replies:

Amen.

And receives Holy Communion.

If a Deacon also distributes Holy Communion, he does so in the same manner.

135. If any are present who are to receive Holy Communion under both kinds, the rite described in the proper place is to be followed.

136. While the Priest is receiving the Body of Christ, the Communion Chant begins.

137. When the distribution of communion is over, the Priest or a Deacon or an acolyte purifies the paten over the chalice and also the chalice itself.

While he carries out the purification, the Priest says quietly:

What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart,
that what has been given to us in time
may be our healing for eternity.

138. Then the Priest may return to the chair. If appropriate, a sacred silence may be observed for a while, or a psalm or other canticle of praise or a hymn may be sung.
139. Then, standing at the altar or at the chair and facing the people, with hands joined, the Priest says:

Let us pray.

All pray in silence with the Priest for a while, unless silence has just been observed. Then the Priest, with hands extended, says the Prayer after Communion, at the end of which the people acclaim:

Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

140. If they are necessary, any brief announcements to the people follow here.

141. Then the dismissal takes place. The Priest, facing the people and extending his hands, says:

The Lord be with you.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

The Priest blesses the people, saying:

 ay almighty God bless you,
the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit.

The people reply:

Amen.

142. On certain days or occasions, this formula of blessing is preceded, in accordance with the rubrics, by another more solemn formula of blessing or by a prayer over the people (Roman Missal: cf. pp. 674ff.).

143. In a Pontifical Mass, the celebrant receives the miter and, extending his hands, says::

The Lord be with you.

All reply:

And with your spirit.

The celebrant says:

Blessed be the name of the Lord.

All reply:

Now and for ever.

The celebrant says:

Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All reply:

Who made heaven.

Then the celebrant receives the pastoral staff, if he uses it, and says:

May almighty God bless you, making the Sign of the Cross over the people three times, he adds:

the Father, ✠ and the Son, ✠ and the Holy ✠ Spirit.

All:

Amen.

144. Then the Deacon, or the Priest himself, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Go forth, the Mass is ended.

Or:

Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.

Or:

Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.

Or:

Go in peace.

The people reply:

Thanks be to God.

145. Then the Priest venerates the altar as usual with a kiss, as at the beginning. After making a profound bow with the ministers, he withdraws.

146. If any liturgical action follows immediately, the rites of dismissal are omitted.

READINGS ON THE FEAST OF THE DIVINO ROSTRO

Friday of the First day of the Novenary to Our Lady of Peñafrancia
DIVINO ROSTRO
(HOLY FACE)

Feast

For the Masses on the Novenary, the Readings of the Day is used.

First Reading

Yet ours were the sorrows he bore, ours were the sufferings he endured.

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

52: 13-15; 53: 1-5

It is now when my servant will succeed;

he will exalted and highly praised.

Just as many have been horrified at his disfigured appearance:

“Is this a man?

He does not look like one,”

so will nations be astounded, king will stand speechless, for they will see something never told,

they will witness something never heard of.

Who could believe what we have heard,

and whom has Yahweh revealed his feat?

Like a root out of dry ground,

like a sapling he grew up before us,

with nothing attractive in his appearance, no beauty, no majesty.

He was despised and rejected,

a man of sorrows familiar with grief,

a man from whom people hide their face,

spurned and considered of no account.

Yet ours were the sorrows he bore,

ours were the sufferings he endured,

although we considered him

as one punished by God, stricken and brought low.

Destroyed because of our sins,

he was crushed for our wickedness.

Through his punishment we are made whole;

by his wounds we are healed.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 80:1, 15-16, 18-19

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and shall be saved.

O shepherd of Israel, hearken,
from your throne upon the cherubim, shine forth.
Rouse your power, and come to save us.

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face
and shall be saved.

Once again, O Lord of host,
look down from heaven, and see.
Take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted.

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face
and shall be saved.

May your help be with the man of your right hand,
with the son of man whom you yourself made strong.
Then we will no more withdraw from you;
given us new life, and we will call upon your name.

R. Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and shall be saved.

Second Reading

But emptied himself, taking on the nature of a servant, made in human likeness.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians

2:5-11

Let what was seen in Christ Jesus

be seen in you:

Though being divine in nature, he did not claim in fact equality with God,

but emptied himself,

taking on the nature of a servant,
made in human likeness.

and in his appearance found as a man.

He humbled himself by being obedient to death,
death on the cross.

That is why God exalted him and gave him the name of Jesus

all knees should bend in heaven, on earth and among the dead, and all tongues proclaim that Christ Jesus

is the Lord

to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.

Acclamation before the Gospel

John 14:16-17

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

I am the way, the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.

Whoever has seen me has seen the Father.

R. Alleluia.

Gospel

He was crucified.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

19:17-27

Bearing his own cross, Jesus went out to the city to what is called Place of the Skull,
(in Hebrew, "Golgotha.")

There he was crucified and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus was in the middle.

Pilate had a notice written and fastened to the Cross that read:

Jesus the Nazorean,
King of the Jews.

Many Jewish people saw this title,
because the place where Jesus was crucified was very close to the city.

It was moreover written in Hebrew, Latin and Greek.

The chief priest said to Pilate,

"Do not write: 'The King of the Jews';
but: 'The man claimed to be king of the Jews.'"

Pilate answered them,

"What I have written, I have written."

When the soldiers crucified Jesus,

they took his clothes and divided them into parts,
one part for each of them.

But as the tunic was woven in one piece from top to bottom,

they said:

"Let us not tear it,
but cast lots to decide who will get it."

This fulfilled the words of the Scripture:

They divided my clothing among them;
they cast lots for my garment.

This was the soldiers did.

Standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son."
Then Jesus said to the disciple, "Here is your mother."
And from that hour the disciple took Mary into his own home.
The gospel of the Lord.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Wednesday
FIRST DAY
For Families and Children

Priest:

In the Eucharist, Christ gives His Body and Blood as a pledge of everlasting life. May the sacrament help us to experience the salvation Christ has won for us. In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

1. May the priests and ministers of the new covenant mirror in their lives the holiness and challenge of the Eucharist they celebrate. Let us pray to the Lord:
2. May the government officials listen to the voice of the poor and the weak instead of giving into the demand of the rich and the powerful. Let us pray to the Lord:
3. May those who continue to crucify Jesus by committing acts of violence against their brothers and sisters be led to the road of repentance and atone for the evils they have done. Let us pray to the Lord:
4. May the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus strengthen all of us in our trials and tribulations so that we may lift up ourselves and our nation from corruption and hopelessness. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Lord, hear the prayer of your people whom you nourish by your body and blood.
Heed our petitions and grant us eternal life with joy.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Thursday
SECOND DAY
For the Youth

Priest:

Christ has done everything well. He therefore is our perfect model for all our intentions and actions. In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

1. That our ears opened in baptism, ever to be open to the wisdom of the Father given to us by Jesus Christ. Let us pray to the Lord:
2. That by our lives, we speak plainly of the love that the Father has for us. Let us pray to the Lord:
3. That we never discriminate against the poor, the mentally ill, the disfigured, the racially different, and the culturally deprived. Let us pray to the Lord:
4. That in this celebration, we may be inspired and learn to follow the way of Christ in his voluntary poverty and thus be rich in faith. Let us pray to the Lord:
5. That we learn to have only one true ambition in life, to be saints. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Heavenly Father,
Christ emptied himself and became poor
that we might become rich in faith.
Help us to empty ourselves of earthly ambitions and honors that we may be rich in your love.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Friday
THIRD DAY
For the Religious

Priest:

Our heavenly Father calls us as one family to serve and to love.
With complete trust in Him. In every petition, we say:

R. Loving Father, hear our prayer.

1. For the Church as a community of Christian family and disciples through the guidance of Mary our Mother, may she continually announce the value of the good news to all humanity, and that she may protect the rights of every family. Let us pray to the Lord:
2. For the leaders of our country, that God may provoke their hearts to genuine concern and faithful service for the good of all people and progress of the nation. Let us pray to the Lord:
3. For those whose faith has grown cold may hear the gentle voice of Jesus calling them back to be one with his people and join in the table of his body and blood. Let us pray to the Lord:
4. For all of us gathered together in this celebration may we always remain to be God's living example for humanity. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Our Lord and Father, lovingly hear the prayers of your children.
Grant us the grace to turn away from sinful life so that we may render true service and love to our fellow men.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Saturday
FOURTH DAY

For the Laity and Parish Workers

Priest:

Christ made himself poor that we might be made rich by his poverty. We pray that we may discern what our true riches are and that we may share with others as Christ shared with us.

In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

- 1. May the Ecclesiastical leaders follow the example of Christ who came not to be served but to serve and to give his life for the good of the people. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 2. May the government leaders imitate Christ to offer our brothers and sisters a life poured out in loving service. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 3. Through the Eucharist, may the Lord restore health to the sick and give pardon to sinners, hope to the dying, and eternal life to the departed ones. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 4. May all of us gathered together in this celebration unite our struggles, our hopes and our whole selves to Christ that we too may become a fragrant offering to God. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Father, look on your children and grant our petitions.
Draw us closer to your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever.

People:

Amen.

Sunday
FIFTH DAY

For Educators and Media Practitioners

Priest:

Let us offer ourselves to God our Father, and ask Him to forever give us Jesus, His only begotten Son, to be with us in our joys and our pains. In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

- 1. For the Church, the people of God, that we may face the trials and difficulties of change with courage and hope in the joy of living out the Gospel. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 2. For government and civic leaders, that in their pursuit of the common good, they may find the courage and strength to shun away what is detrimental to the truth and to life. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 3. For the people in media and communications: those in radio, television, periodicals, and new media; that they may resist false information and disinformation, and that they may remain true to the truth, and the word of God. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 4. For our parents, teachers, and all other educators, that they may continue to form children to be strong in faith and to value the truth; and for children, that their lives may continue to inspire idealism and generosity. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 5. For the sick and suffering, that they may find peace, consolation, and strength in the suffering of Christ Jesus. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

O God, hear the prayers of these, your people. Through your mercy, may we attain everlasting joy in your Kingdom. Through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Monday
SIXTH DAY

For the Sick, the Elderly, and the Health Workers

Priest:

Almighty Father, you showed your great love to your Son, Jesus who offered himself for our salvation. Hear our petitions and give us the grace that we may become faithful followers of Christ.

In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

- 1. For all the leaders of the Church, that they may remain faithful to their chosen vocation and become witnesses of the love and sacrifices of Christ. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 2. For those in the government, that they may give each family an opportunity to a better living and they may find means so that families be freed from extreme poverty and suffering. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 3. For those young people who feel themselves drawn to the message and personality of Jesus, may we be willing to welcome their enthusiastic witness and may they be willing to share it with us. We pray to the Lord.
- 4. For all of us who are present in this Eucharist, that we may be able to face any difficulties and sufferings in life with faith and love. May the grace and the love of Christ become our strength to overcome these hardships in life. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

O loving Father, hear our prayers.

Guide us in our journey in the ways of righteousness.

May we become worthy to share in the sacrifice and love of Jesus.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Tuesday
SEVENTH DAY
For the Poor and Prisoners

Priest:

God our Father, you created us and made us according to your image and likeness. Grant that we may be strong in faith, hope and love towards the path that leads to your Son. Let our praises rise up to you and our prayers echo in your heart.

In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

1. For our Pope, Bishops, Deacons and all your servants, that amidst all trials they may be strengthened by your will especially in leading humanity towards the fullness of peace in heaven. Teach them the ways in giving hope and peace to all those whom you have called. Let us pray to the Lord:
2. For all the nations of the world, let them be one in advocating your truth, justice, peace and love. May its leaders be enlightened with your word and not with harmful philosophies that leads to chaos, violence and war. Let your mercy and compassion help us attain world peace. Let us pray to the Lord:
3. For all the Christian Families especially for all the parents, that as they live out the Gospel values, they may become sharers of God's peace plan in marriage. May the seed of faith be nourished in them and become a solid foundation of the moral fiber of our society. Let us pray to the Lord:
4. For all of us here present and for all the donors and sponsors for this novena mass that we may constantly offer ourselves to you and renew our lives according to your plan. May we see in everyone your loving presence that we may all the more serve one another and love each other in our own little way towards being more responsible Christians. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Loving Father, you have made known to us
the everlasting rewards of heaven through the salvific act of your Son.
Hear our prayers and petitions that as we live out the gospel values, we may one day be united with you in your kingdom.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Wednesday
EIGHT DAY

For Priests and Seminarians

Priest:

Full of confidence, let us pray to God the Father whom we adore in this Eucharist. In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

- 1. For the Church leaders, that they may continuously serve the Christian community as they share in the mission of Christ as High Priest. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 2. For the leaders of our nation, that they may give priority to the needs of the poor and the least in the community. May their hearts be moved to serve with love and sacrifice. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 3. For our brothers and sisters who are experiencing difficulties, trials and sickness, may their prayers be heard and that they may always hope for the Lord who gives us comfort. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 4. For all of us present in this Mass, the donors and sponsors, may all of us receive the necessary grace that we may worthily share in Christ's mission as priest. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

God our Father, you restored us to yourself through the resurrection of Christ your Son.
Hear the prayers of your people and strengthen us in giving witness to our faith.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Thursday
NINTH DAY

For Government Leaders and Employees

Priest:

Let us offer all our prayers to God the Father who sent His Son so that we may also share with him in His Kingdom. With great faith in Christ the King, let us offer all our needs. In every petition, we say:

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

- 1. For the Church leaders, our Pope, bishops and priests, may they be freed from any health problems as they continuously serve the Lord in bringing God's love and forgiveness to the world. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 2. For the leaders of different communities and nations, may they be united to bring justice, peace and prosperity in the society. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 3. For the various organizations and movements, that they may never cease to serve for the welfare of the oppressed and the poor and set example of sincerity in service. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 4. For all the families, that Christ may reign in the relationship of couples, in the relationship of the children among themselves and in the relationship between children and parents. Let us pray to the Lord:
- 5. For all of us here, the donors and sponsors of this Mass, may we never fail in serving others in accordance with the will of Christ that we should serve with humility and sacrifice. Let us pray to the Lord:

Priest:

Loving Father, help us to live according to the will of Christ our King. Hear our petitions. Guide us as your sons and daughters to your kingdom. This we ask through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

Friday of the First Day of the Novenary to Our Lady of Peñafrancia
DIVINO ROSTRO

Feast
