INTRODUCTORY RITE

Commentary

Commentator — This Sunday, the Archdiocese of Caceres celebrates the feast of San Pedro Bautista, the titular patron of our local Church. In today's liturgy, we hear of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection for the salvation of all. As Christians, we are all called to partake in this act of salvation, just like San Pedro Bautista who lovingly offered his life for the greater glory of God and his kingdom. Thus, let us pray to San Pedro Bautista, that through his intercession, we may be guided in living a Christian life, and that we may be forever united as one Archdiocese.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading (Sit)

(2 Chronicles 24, 18-22)

The first reading speaks of the fall of King Joash from a righteous life to one of sin due to his unfaithfulness to God and his adoration of a false god.

A reading from the second book of Chronicles

Zechariah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. The princes of Judah forsook the temple of the Lord, the God of their fathers, and began to serve the sacred poles and the idols; and because of this crime of theirs, wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem. Although prophets were sent to them to convert them to the Lord, the people would not listen to their warnings. Then the spirit of God possessed Zechariah, son of Jehoiada the priest. He took his stand above the people and said to them: "God says, 'Why are you transgressing the Lord's commands, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have abandoned the Lord, he has abandoned you' But they conspired against him, and at the king's order they stoned him to death in the court of the Lord's temple. Thus King Joash was unmindful of the devotion shown him by Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, and slew his son. And as he was dying, he said, "May the Lord see and avenge."

The word of the Lord.

All — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Psalm 147, 1-2. 3-4. 5-6)

R — Into your hands, O Lord, I entrust my spirit.

1. Be my rock of refuge, a stronghold to give me safety. You are my rock and my fortress; for your name's sake you will lead and guide me. (R)
2. Into your hands I commend my spirit; you will redeem me, O Lord, O faithful God My trust is in the Lord. (R)
3. I will rejoice and be glad of your kindness. Let your face shine upon your servant; save me in your kindness. You hide them in the shelter your presence from the plottings of men. (R)

Second Reading

(2 Romans 5, 1-5)

The second reading speaks of the teachings of St. Paul on being righteous before God through our faith. This is the hope that gives strength to the martyrs to remain faithful and righteous before the Lord in the midst of death.

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Romans

We boast about our sufferings. Now that we have been justified by faith, we are at peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have gained access by faith to the grace in which we now stand, and we boast of our hope for the glory of God. But not only that -- we even boast of our afflictions! We know that affliction makes for endurance, and endurance for tested virtue, and tested virtue for hope, and this hope will not leave us disappointed, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

The word of the Lord.

All — Thanks be to God.

Acclamation

(Mt 28:19a, 20b) (Stand)

(Recited when the Alleluia is not sung.)

Alleluia, alleluia! Go and teach all nations, says the Lord; I am with you always, until the end of the world. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel

(Matthew 28, 16-20)

P — The Lord be with you.

C — And with your spirit.

P — ✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

C — Glory to you, O Lord.

The Eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

P — The Gospel of the Lord.

C — Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily (Sit)

Proclamation of Faith (Stand)

Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed

All — I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)

Prayer of the Faithful

P — Let us pray to our Heavenly Father that as we celebrate the feast of San Pedro Bautista, the Patron of our Archdiocese, we may profess our faith in his great love for us. Together with our personal intentions let us also pray for all the families throughout the world. In every petition let us say:

R — Lord, hear our prayer.

1. That Church leaders — Francis our Pope, Rolando our Bishop, and all the clergy — preach the Good News and become living witnesses of the Gospel of Love: let us pray to the Lord. (R)
2. That government leaders may heed the promptings of the Holy Spirit to seek the common good and show genuine service to their communities: let us pray to the Lord. (R)

3. That missionaries and those living a consecrated life may be faithful in fulfilling their mission of loving and serving the Lord: let us pray to the Lord. (R)

4. That all of us and our families may follow in the example of San Pedro Bautista of living out a life of love, humility, and true fear of the Lord: let us pray to the Lord. (R)

5. That the poor, the sick, and those who have died may find hope in the mercy and love of God: let us pray to the Lord. (R)

P — Almighty Father, hear the prayers of your people. Through the prayers of San Pedro Bautista, grant us the grace to live in accordance with your will and to witness your love into the world. We ask this through Christ Our Lord.

Prayer to San Pedro Bautista

All — O compassionate San Pedro Bautista, brave soldier of Christ, apostle and martyr of faith, we look up to your Christian virtues and uprightness which have been entrusted to you by God since
